

Thank you

It means the world to me that you've chosen to bring Fahli into your classroom. These resources were made with genuine love and care to help offer teachers and parents tools to inspire students to flex their creative muscles, and harness ways of further developing their own unique ideas!

About Fahli

When a snowstorm traps twelve-year-old Nina high in the frozen peaks of Manatua, she takes shelter in a mountain cave, only to discover she's not alone. A Koa-Kua named Elliot has just lost the adventurer he was sworn to protect. With the curse of the Aygar tightening its grip, he has only one hope: Nina. And Nina has only one wish, to make it home in time to meet the newest member of her family.

How to use this kit

Everything in this activity kit is free to print and use in your classroom, reading group or homeschool setting. You're welcome to photocopy any resource for classroom use. If you share it online, I'd just ask that you credit myself and link back to www.cjbiggin.com.

If your class enjoys the activities, I'd love to hear about it — tag me on social media or drop me a message.
